Re: United States v. Lywan Reed, et al., 19 Cr. 931 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

I am the attorney for Lywan Reed, a defendant in the above-referenced matter. On October 21, 2020, Mr. Reed pled guilty to Counts Two and Four of the above-referenced Indictment. He is currently on home detention with electronic monitoring and the Court has ordered Mr. Reed to self-surrender for remand pending sentencing by November 11, 2020 at 11:00 am. The Court provided Mr. Reed additional time to self-surrender so that he could see a doctor about medical symptoms he was having.

Mr. Reed has now been seen by several doctors, including at the Brooklyn Hospital Center. Mr. Reed has had multiple electrocardiograms and an ultrasound of his heart and met with cardiologists today to review the results. At this time, while Mr. Reed appears to have some heart valve leakage, there is no course of treatment being recommended. Mr. Reed had already been referred to the neurology department at Downstate Medical Center and the cardiology team he met with today agrees with that recommendation. A redacted copy of the neurology referral is attached hereto. Unfortunately, Mr. Reed's neurology appointment was scheduled for January 2021. While we are not asking the Court to postpone Mr. Reed's surrender date to January 2021, we request one more week for Mr. Reed to attempt to be seen by a neurologist and to postpone his surrender date to November 18, 2020 at 11:00 am. In the alternative, because tomorrow is Veterans' Day and a federal holiday, we request that Mr. Reed be given until at least November 12, 2020 at 11:00 am to self-surrender.

I thank the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
